
This Citigroup "Family Tree" represents the major components and predecessor companies of Citicorp and Travelers – the two major organizations that formed Citigroup in 1998. In the interest of clarity and brevity, it does not include all the companies that were owned or sold or were short-lived.

Green type indicates the name of the first company in a related branch.
Blue type indicates the name of a company at the time it merged into another line.

January 2008