

Biography

Mark Risch
Director
303.308.7401
mark.risch@citi.com

Mark Risch is a Director of Citi Community Capital and based in Denver, Colorado. Mr. Risch is responsible for investment banking and originating mortgage loans and related structured financings across the United States.

Over the past 19 years, Mr. Risch has been actively involved in real estate finance. During this time, Mr. Risch has completed a variety of financing structures including 9% construction and permanent loans, fixed-rate and variable rate bond offerings, FHA mortgage insurance financings, FHA risk share program, Fannie Mae/Freddie Mac loans and credit enhancement, and commercial bank letter of credits. As part of Citi Community Capital, Mr. Risch focuses entirely on the financing of affordable housing properties.

Prior to joining Citi, Mr. Risch specialized in tax-exempt health care finance including financings dedicated to senior care. Other experience includes working as a member of the finance and acquisition team for a national real estate investment trust. Mr. Risch graduated from Tufts University in 1990.