³See Section I. point 3.7 for the rules applied in case of large amount and / or specific denomination transactions.

⁴One banking day prior to the value date of the withdrawals – see Section I. Point 3.7 General Rules.

⁵One banking day prior to the date of the debit.

⁶For the refusal of the group collection order the Client must submit the following data concerning to the group collection order: Beneficiary's name, the amount of the collection, account to be debited, and the date of debit. The refusal of the group collection order refers only to the particular group collection order that was specified by these data.

Execution of payment orders received by the Bank within the final cut-off times above will be fulfilled on the same day, if other execution date has not been requested by the Client, or by the law.

Concerning the above banking activities, the closing time of the working day is two hours later calculated from the respective final cut-off times above for submission of orders. Closing time on the subject working day (banking day) is the same as opening of business on the next working day, in case of GIRO transfer initiated via electronic system (CitiDirect, CitiConnectSM for Files (previously CFX, File Delivery) or SWIFT) the starting time of the workday is 7:00 a.m.

1.1 Special rules applying to the submission, reception and processing of such instructions:

- 1.1.1 In the case of orders received after the final cut-off time or on not working day for submission, the Bank will process the request on the following banking day – unless the Client specifies a different value date.
- 1.1.2 For the calculation of the execution times specified in point 2 time of receipt of a payment order is the time considering the final cut-off times for submission, when the payment order is received by the Bank and the all necessary information and funds are available.
- 1.1.3 Full coverage must be provided for the transaction orders submitted on the given booking date, either by releasing funds from a time deposit, or by depositing cash or by making a book transfer from another account, before the cut-off time applicable for the respective transaction. In case the Client submits a payment order before the respective cut-off times listed under Section II. point 1. in such a way that there is no coverage for the processing of it, the instruction will be processed the same day before the respective cut-off time listed under Section II. point 1. when the Client can provide sufficient coverage. In case of payment orders without sufficient coverage available before the respective cut-off time listed under Section II. point 1. the loss arising from a currency conversion will be transferred to the Client as per Section II. 3.1.2. The Bank processes the transactions in the order complying with its internal regulations. The Bank cannot be held liable for losses arising from the delayed provision of coverage and / or when the Client cannot provide sufficient coverage for all payment orders submitted for processing on the same booking date.

Payment orders without sufficient coverage are kept pending by the Bank for five (5) banking days, after which they are cancelled for a charge of cancellation fee as defined in point Section I. Point 2.2.31 or 2.2.32 (in case of cancelling instructions of transfers with conversion, the Bank will act as defined in Section II. point 3.1.2) and the issuer of the request will be notified of the cancellation. In case the Client provides coverage for a foreign currency transfer or a HUF transfer abroad after 12:00, the Bank cannot guarantee the application of the foreign exchange rates fixed in the morning of the same day.

- 1.1.4 If you wish to provide coverage for transfers from a time deposit release, a cash deposit or an in-house transfer from another account, make sure that you indicate this clearly and conspicuously. If your order is sent via CitiDirect, CitiConnectSM for Files (previously CFX, File Delivery) or SWIFT system, please notify CitiService staff by phone.
- 1.1.5 The Bank does not undertake to hold payment orders submitted properly with sufficient coverage.
- 1.1.6 The Bank considers the available balance at 8:00 a.m. for that day processing in case of funds examination of collection, transfer order and official remittance order. If the balance does not provide adequate funds for the execution, the Bank blocks the additional amounts credited during the day on the account(s) for the funds of this transaction(s).
- 1.1.7 The Bank will fulfil Time Deposit placement orders against overdraft.
- 1.1.8 In case of transactions initiated on paper or via SWIFT, the different instruction types (e.g. only HUF or only foreign currency transaction initiation) must be submitted on separate pages / SWIFT messages.
- 1.1.9 In case of a HUF transfer to abroad submitted for same day processing before the respective cut-off time for submission defined under Section II. Point 1. the Bank will process the payment via VIBER.
- 1.1.10 In the case the payment order submitted via CitiDirect, CitiConnectSM for Files (previously CFX, File Delivery) or SWIFT does not meet the criteria of straight-through processing the Bank will charge additional fee for manual intervention if:
 - a) “Beneficiary bank routing method / code” field does not indicate SWIFT codeword together with valid Bank Identification Code (BIC code) and / or

- b) "Other instruction" field contains any text or codeword except instruction for executing payment in other amount, for example HUF EQUIVALENT OF USD, or currency, for example PAYMENT IN EUR, that is indicated in the Currency or Amount field.

1.1.11 The Bank is ready to receive and perform the SEPA Credit Transfer (SCT – SEPA Credit Transfer) type of foreign currency payments in Euro. These payments performed on the basis of SEPA Credit Transfer Rulebook developed by the European Payment Council can be used between countries belonging to the European Union countries, Iceland, Lichtenstein, Norway and Switzerland, as well as among banks operate in Hungary.

Basic conditions of a SEPA Transfer:

SEPA payment transfer needs to be indicated by the ordering party in the payment order as follows:

- SEPA SCT (Credit Transfer) transactions can exclusively be initiated in CitiDirect from the Foreign Currency Transfer module as follows by selecting "SEPA" codeword in "Payment Method" field.
 - If the payment order is submitted on the standard foreign currency transfer form of the Bank, it should be indicated by ticking the "SEPA transfer" box in the header of the form.
 - In case of any free format order, the SEPA codeword in capital is also required to visibly put on the order.
 - In case of SWIFT MT101 / MT103 type of messages, if the transfer is SEPA SCT type, please indicate the "SEPA" codeword in the first 4 character in field 72 in the SWIFT message.
 - The Bank is not able to receive SEPA SCT transfer orders submitted via CitiConnectSM for Files (Full Service).
- b) Performed only in Euro between banks operate in the above countries and banks located in Hungary;
- c) SEPA payments can be sent only to those beneficiaries whose banks have been adhered to SEPA rules and are registered by the European Payments Council;
- d) In the payment order the indication of IBAN account number and the SWIFT code of the beneficiary's bank (BIC code) is obligatory;
- e) As the SEPA transfer can be initiated only with shared charges option, please always indicate SHA in charges option field. If otherwise indicated, the Bank will not take this into consideration while performing the payment.
- f) The transferred amount has to be credited on the beneficiary account by the Bank latest by the 3rd day of initiation, if the currency of the beneficiary account is Euro.
- g) In case the currency of the account to be debited / credited held with the Bank is not Euro, execution of the payment transfer may be extended due to conversion.
- h) The Bank applies charge indicated as "SEPA", and further SWIFT fees are not debited.
- i) In case the beneficiary bank has not adhered to SEPA and not registered by the European Payments Council at the time of the SEPA payment initiation, the Bank will not reject the payment but perform it based on the terms and conditions of non-SEPA foreign currency payment. In house bank transfer cannot be executed as SEPA payment. For redirection of such payments the Bank may charge an extra fee as per Section I. point 2.2.39 above and debit the account on the last working day of the actual month, with value date as the 1st working day of the month following the actual month.

Only the payment instructions meeting all conditions listed above and correctly and fully filled up will be handled as SEPA payments, otherwise the Bank performs the payment instructions based on the terms and conditions of a non-SEPA foreign currency payment.

1.1.12 The Bank – only as the debtor's bank – fulfils the SEPA collection transaction orders. The SEPA-collection (SEPA direct debit scheme – SDD) is an interbank payment method, which only specifies the common rule and procedure systems of the collections defined in euro, in which the payer gives the authorization for the collection directly to the beneficiary. The Bank fulfils the SEPA collection order after the Regulation book of the SEPA Core and SEPA Business to business Direct Debit effective to-date.

1.1.13 Urgent processing of International Funds Transfer can be initiated in CitiDirect from the Foreign Currency Transfer module by validating the Urgent payment checkbox.

The Bank executes Urgent payment applying the same value date as the processing date so the Client account is debited on the same day when the funds become available at the Bank's account by its correspondent bank.

Urgent payment can be applied in case of international transfers in the following currencies: Euro (EUR), US Dollar (USD), English Pound (GBP), Canadian Dollar (CAD), Roman Leu (RON), Turkish Lira (TRY). In other foreign currencies Urgent payment cannot be initiated via CitiDirect.

Urgent payment reception on paper can be acceptable if the application clearly indicates notice regarding Urgent payment processing and at the same time our telephone service is informed about the request.

1.2 General rules for reception and collection of cheques

1.2.1 The Bank accepts cheque collection orders submitted only on its standard application form. In case of cheque collections the Bank reserves the right to select collecting bank at its own discretion for the purpose of accomplishing the collection order. The Bank shall not be responsible for any losses, damages resulting from this, provided the Bank is able to prove that he has acted with regard to selection and instruction in a manner that can generally be expected in the given situation.

1.2.2 Foreign currency cheques (EUR, CAD, GBP, USD) not exceeding USD 30,000 may be collected via Cheque Clearing Centres (Cash Letter Service). In accordance with the Bank's internal regulations the counter-value of such cheques may be credited on the Client's account with recourse, being "subject to final payment", by applying 11 days value date from the date of the credit of cheque value by the Cheque Clearing Centre. In case the Cheque Clearing Centre claims repayment for the cheque, the Bank reserves the right to debit the Client's account at any time with the amount credited, and debit the banking fees occurred, forwarding the reason of repayment provided by the Paying bank.

1.3 The rules for modifying, cancelling or recalling orders received by the Bank are as follows:

1.3.1 The Bank accepts duly signed, written orders as per the Signature Mandate for modification, cancellation and recall by 3 p.m. on banking days except those services listed in the Bank's General Business Conditions of Corporate Services under point 12.1.2 and 12.2.2. The Bank cannot guarantee the execution of that order even if the Client submitted it properly, before cut-off time, and there is sufficient coverage available.

1.3.2 The Bank takes no liability for the successful accomplishment of the order recall given by the customer. The Bank will credit the orders amount upon its return from the beneficiary's bank, or in case of in-house bank transfers after the payee grants its contribution for recalling, on the value date of return and consent, after the deduction of the fees and with the exchange rate difference used by the beneficiary's bank in case of conversion.

1.3.3 The Bank will accept modification, cancellation and recall requests providing the repetition of all data of the original application.

2. Fulfilment of orders

If the order was submitted to the Bank before the final cut-off time for reception, and the Bank has the coverage as well as all the information necessary for the transfer at its disposal, the time required for the order to arrive at the beneficiary's bank, depending on the type of transfer and assuming that business and transaction handling are as usual, can be expected to be as follows:

3. Exchange rates

3.1. Exchange rates used in case of transfers

Currency of the account to be debited	Currency of the transferred amount	Applicable exchange rate
HUF	Foreign currency	Foreign currency sell rate
Foreign currency	Foreign currency differing from the currency of the account, but not HUF	The Bank converts the amount to be transferred to HUF with the foreign currency sell rate, then converts the HUF amount to the currency of the account to be debited using the foreign currency buy rate.
Foreign currency	HUF	Foreign currency buy rate
Currency of the account to be credited	Currency of the transferred amount	Applicable exchange rate
HUF	Foreign currency	Foreign currency buy rate
Foreign currency	Foreign currency differing from the currency of the account, but not HUF	The Bank converts the incoming amount to HUF with the foreign currency buy rate, then converts the HUF amount to the currency of the account to be credited using the foreign currency sell rate.
Foreign currency	HUF	Foreign currency sell rate

Exchange rate of non HUF card transactions: international bankcard companies are charging the Bank's settlement account of the transaction with the exchange rate and settlement currency defined by them. The settlement amount in the settlement currency is converted to HUF by the Bank at the foreign currency selling exchange rate valid on the settlement day.

3.2 Loss deriving from foreign exchange

If the Client retracts the properly submitted instruction for a transaction involving conversion, or if the funding for the transactions is not made available until the cut-off time listed under Section II point 1, the Bank will close the already initiated conversion deal, and all potential expense or loss resulting from this will be charged to the Client by debiting its current account.

3.3 Exchange rates used in case of teller transactions

Currency of the account to be debited	Currency of the withdrawn amount, or purchased traveller's cheque	Applicable exchange rate
HUF	Foreign currency	Foreign currency cash sell rate
Foreign currency	Foreign currency differing from the currency of the account, but not HUF	The Bank converts the amount requested to HUF with the cash sell rate, then converts the HUF amount to the currency of the account to be debited using the cash buy rate.

Currency of the account to be credited	Currency of the deposited amount, or sold travellers' cheque	Applicable exchange rate
HUF	Foreign currency	Foreign currency cash buy rate
Foreign currency	Foreign currency differing from the currency of the account, but not HUF	The Bank converts the deposited amount to HUF with the cash buy rate, then converts the HUF amount to the currency of the account to be credited using the cash sell rate.
Foreign currency	HUF	Foreign currency cash sell rate

3.4 Exchange rates used in case of fees

Even if the applicable charges, fees, expenses are not defined in the currency of the account to be debited, the fees will be charged in the currency of the account. The Bank will use the following exchange rates valid on the day of charging to change the fees:

Account	Fee, charge, commission currency	Applied exchange rate
HUF account	Fee defined in foreign currency	Foreign currency sell rate
Foreign currency account	Fee defined in HUF	Foreign currency buy rate
Foreign currency account	Fee defined in other foreign currency	The Bank will change the fee, charge, commission defined in a currency differing from the currency of the account to HUF on sell rate, and then the HUF amount calculated thus will be converted to the currency of the account on buy rate and debited on the account.

4. Value date / booking date

Value date is the day which is considered as interest calculation in case of payment transaction.

Booking date is the day when the booking of the payment transaction is actually happened according to the payment order. Transaction orders submitted via SWIFT - according to international bank standards – 32A (value date) field is considered as value date by the Bank and conduct the orders accordingly. If the date specified is a day later than the 10th working day subsequent to the day of reception, the Bank might refuse the instruction.

In case of paper based transaction orders submitted on PFNY 11 form the date of the „Value date” field is considered as booking date by the Bank and conduct the orders accordingly.

In case of foreign currency payment order submitted via CitiDirect in the Hungarian module the „Terhelés könyvelési napja” field, in the English module the „Value date” field is considered as booking date by the Bank and conduct the orders accordingly.

Standing orders must be submitted on the form specified by the Bank.

5. When submitting foreign currency transfer orders or HUF transfers abroad via CitiDirect or on paper, please pay attention to the following (except for SEPA payment orders):

Charges Indicator field: Please select the appropriate option, in accordance with the following:

OUR (= from our account): The total charges related to the transfer, i.e. Bank's charges as well as those of the beneficiary's bank are to be debited from your designated account. For a determined fee debited at the initiation of transfer, Bank bears all further charges incurred related to the transfer. In case foreign currency transfer within EEA States and in the currency of an EEA State OUR charge option can not be applied.

BEN (= beneficiary): The beneficiary is to bear all charges on both sides related to the transfer (including the charges applied by the beneficiary bank as well). In this case, the transfer is executed as follows: the Bank's charges are deducted from the amount of the transfer, which means the beneficiary receives the amount of the transfer less the amount of the charges. In case foreign currency transfer within EEA States and in the currency of an EEA State, beneficiary charge option (BEN) cannot be accepted by the Bank. Charges and fees occurred on the Bank side will be debited on the Bank's Client account as if transaction was initiated with shared (SHA) charge option.

SHA (=shared): Besides the amount of the transfer, only the Bank's charges will be debited from your designated account, and the charges of the beneficiary's bank will be borne by the beneficiary. In case foreign currency transfer within EEA States and in the currency of an EEA State the shared (SHA) charge option can only be applied. If the Client does not mark the required charge option, the Bank will apply SHA charging option to the item.

Even if the foreign bank charges are to be paid - based on the instructions of the remitter - by the beneficiary, the beneficiary's bank might charge the foreign bank charges back to the remitter. This is particularly liable to happen in case of transfers below USD 100. In these cases the charges are debited by the Bank to the remitter's account.

6. Processing of foreign currency funds transfers and incoming items with conversion and foreign currency teller deposits and withdrawals

6.1 Foreign currency exchange rate applied in respect of foreign currency transfers (including SEPA transfers) and credits that require conversion between currencies outside EEA states

In case of the foreign currency funds transfers and incoming items which require foreign currency conversion not exceeding USD 10,000 or equivalent, the Bank will apply so called “small value fixing” exchange rate quoted before 9:00 a.m. on each banking business day applicable for the date of submission of the instructions submitted on that day.

In case of transactions above USD 10,000 or equivalent, the Bank will apply so called “large value fixing” exchange rate quoted around 14:00 on each banking business day for the instructions submitted on that day.

The Bank can only guarantee these rates if the foreign currency transfer order:

- i. arrives to the Bank before cut-off time for processing;
- ii. has sufficient coverage on the account of the Client;
- iii. complies with the conditions defined under points II/1.1.

In case of foreign currency transfer orders received after cut-off time, the Bank executes the transactions using the actual exchange rate available on the market, if the Client instructs accordingly. This exchange rate might differ from the published exchange rate of the Bank. In the case of orders received after cut-off time, the Bank will do its best to process the order the same day, but it cannot guarantee that it will be fulfilled even if the Client submitted the item properly and if coverage is available. In order to ensure the safe and smooth processing of Client orders, the Bank has the right to refuse requests for the extension of cut-off times for submission.

6.2 Foreign currency exchange rates applied in respect of foreign currency credits (including SEPA credits) that require conversion between currencies of EEA states (in compliance with the recommendations of National Bank of Hungary)

- i. EGT 1 fixing rate for transactions received between 15:30 on the previous banking day and 8:00 on the processing date,
- ii. EGT 2 fixing rate for transactions received between 8:00 and 11:30 on the processing date,
- iii. EGT 3 fixing rate for transactions received between 11:30 and 15:30 on the processing date.

6.3

In case the volatility of the exchange rates justifies it, the Bank keeps the right to fix new exchange rates during the day and to perform the payment orders not processed before at the newly quoted exchange rates.

The above exchanges rates quoted by the Bank are available in all Citibank Europe plc Hungarian Branch Office branches, at the official website of the Bank.

Our CitiService representatives will be pleased to provide you with information on exchange rates.

6.4 Cash transactions require conversion

In the case of cash transactions that require conversion, the Bank will apply the foreign currency exchange rates for teller transactions quoted by the Bank at 8 a.m. on the day of the transaction.

6.5

In case of Urgent Payment transaction the foreign exchange rate quoted by the Bank for same value date is applicable in conformity with point 6.1 above.

7. Time deposits

The prevailing time deposit interest rates and tenors are available under the table “Time deposit interest rates for Corporates”. The first day of interest calculation for time deposit is the day when the amount is deposited with the Bank, the last day is the maturity date or the day prior to cancellation of the deposit, due to an early access. The time deposit matures on the last day of the tenor even if it falls on a public holiday. In case of time deposits with single maturity and non-capitalizing time deposits with auto-rollover option the interest earned will be paid on the following business day with the value date being the maturity date. In case of time deposits with rollover option, the first day after the maturity date will be the first day of the rolled over time deposit even if this date falls on a non working day.

The interest rates on deposits are defined by the Bank by the following interest rate calculation method:

Capital x interest rate% x number of days

$$\text{Interest} = \frac{\text{Capital} \times \text{interest rate}\% \times \text{number of days}}{360}$$

Except GBP, PLN, HKD currencies, in which cases the Bank calculates the interest rate with the following method according to the international standards:

Capital x interest rate% x number of days

$$\text{Interest} = \frac{\text{Capital} \times \text{interest rate}\% \times \text{number of days}}{365}$$

8. Credit and loan conditions

The interest calculation in case of overdraft, loan or other credit is taking into account for 360 days a year and calculated on the basis of actual days elapsed. The Bank will follow international practice in case of currencies, which interest rates are calculated according to different principles.

9. Debiting fees, charges and interest

From the 1st of January 2013 the Bank increases the fees of payment services falling under the scope of the Financial Transaction Duty (FTD) law (Act CXVI of 2012. and its amendments) with the amount of the effective financial transaction tax.
