Turn Off Paper Statements

Paper statements will be turned off at the next statement cycle unless you tick the box below. Citi will keep providing paper statements for clients who do not sign-up for eStatements. Starting in July 2016, the fee for paper statements will be EUR 12,50 per statement subject to minimum EUR 50 per month and account, unless agreed otherwise. The delivery of eStatements is free of charge.

☐ Continue sending paper statements for all accounts listed above

The Customer authorizes the Citibank N.A. branch, subsidiary or affiliate where the accounts referred to above are located ("Citibank") to send account and/or interest statements in electronic form using secure methods of delivery to the E-mail address(es) specified. The electronic statements (eStatements) service shall be provided in accordance with materials (including technical requirements and security procedures) issued to the Customer from time to time. The electronic statement shall be issued instead of a paper statement unless the Customer and Citibank agree otherwise.

The Customer acknowledges that, notwithstanding the use of secure methods of delivery, electronic messages may contain viruses or may be delayed and that there are confidentiality and other risks associated with the delivery of statements electronically and the Customer agrees that Citibank shall not be held responsible for any of these occurrences or for any unauthorized access and/or alteration to any E-mail communication.

All electronic communications will be deemed to have been received by the Customer on the day that Citibank sends the E-mail to the relevant E-mail address, even if the recipient does not access the electronic communication for any reason.
